The support of the Friends of the Ashtabula Library and the Friends of the Geneva Library help these organizations to provide programming for children and adults, purchase special items and materials, and contribute to our community's involvement in education and literacy.

The Friends of the Library is made up of civic-minded individuals who support vital and innovative library services for their community. Friends can...

- sponsor fund-raising events,
- purchase special materials,
- host special programs,
- assist in Library development,
- volunteer in the libraries.

Your Support can Make a Difference!
